

SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME

A Prathap

FUTURE COMMUTE: A view of the Metro rail station near the city airport. Designed to be connected to the new terminals, the station will be a hub of intermodal transit as passengers will be able to alight from the metro and walk into the airport's departure level. Structural work is complete and the roof is being installed at the building located opposite the terminal within the airport campus