PATTERNS OF LIFE: A kolam contest was held as part of Mylapore Festival 2018 in North Mada Street on Saturday

CMRL's rangoli contest sees 76 participants

CMRL in association with Mohan Foundation conducted a rangoli competition on Saturday at the Thirumangalam metro station. The competition was conducted for adults and students. Nearly 76 people participated in the competition and created awareness on various topics such as organ donation. In the valedictory function, six people won the first and second prize in the adults and students categories each.
