Sub: Month Long Traditional Board Games at Chennai Metro Rail Station – Reg

As a part of celebrating Chennai's rich history of games, Chennai Metro Rail Limited in association with Kreedaa, an organisation that has been working for over fifteen years in researching, developing and reviving such traditional games of India, will be conducting a month-long road show culminating with Madras week to give an insight into the different traditional board games of Chennai

The city of Chennai is home to a wide range of traditional games that have been played for many many years. The temples and monuments are home to numerous boards inscribed on the floors – boards native to Chennai and those that have travelled here through cultural exchange with neighbouring states and some that even seem to indicate an exchange with other countries.

In this connection, Kreedaa will be stopping at all metro stations on the below mentioned dates and timings to provide the passengers of Metro Rail and public to take a break and enjoy this rich history of traditional games namely Pallanguzhi, Parama Patham, Aadu Puli Aatam, Kattam Vilaiyattu, Nakshatra Vilaiyattu, Nallu Katta Dhayam, Dhadi to name a few.

The Kreedaa team in red and yellow will have tables and games set up for people to play. Take a break and take a different journey - journey to our rich and wonderful past.
