

CMRL campaigns through art

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
CHENNAI

The Vadapalani Metro Station was filled with students who came up with sketches promoting organ donation on Saturday afternoon.

About 200 students from 12 schools and three colleges participated in a visual arts competition – Life 2.0 – on organ donation. It was organised jointly by Chennai Metro Rail Limited and the Mohan Foundation. Mohan Foundation also set up an exhibition of paintings done by Iranian artists. The event was the fourth such collaboration with CMRL, that has been supporting the cause of organ donation.
