

Students paint to push for organ donation

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Chennai: Chennai Metro Rail Limited in association with Mohan Foundation organised a visual arts competition – LIFE 2.0 for students on Saturday on the theme of organ donation for students from various schools and colleges in Chennai.

The competition, took place at the Vadapalani Metro station on Saturday and saw participation by around 200 students from 12 schools and three colleges. Reji Joseph, artist, Dr Rajeshwari, trauma ward in-charge of Rajiv Gandhi Government Medical College and Clinton, an art teacher were the judges.

Cash awards and gifts were distributed to winners. The competition had three categories — photography, paintings, cartoons and illustrations. An exhibition of paintings done by Iranian artists under the NAFAS festival was also on display.