

Metro feeder services to link more IT firms

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Chennai: Feeder services that were introduced by CMRL from Alandur Metro station to DLF will now make more stops to link more IT companies and shopping malls owing to popular demand.

The services are available from 6.30am to 9.30pm during train operational hours.

The van service that linked Alandur metro station and DLF Porur, plying at an interval of 15 minutes for flat rate of ₹20, will now stop at L&T office on weekdays.

CMRL introduced the feeder service between Alandur metro and DLF IT park on October 1.

During weekends, the same service will run on two new routes -- One will ply between Alandur metro station and DLF via L&T office to Saravana Stores-SRM Easwari Engineering College and back to Alandur metro. The second route will link Alandur metro station with Phoenix Mall via ITC Grand Chola and Velachery Main Road with a 30-minute frequency for a rate of ₹20. The service is available on call basis. Passengers can call CMRL customer service number 1860-4251-1515 for booking the share taxi services at a flat rate of ₹15.
