

CMRL warns against illegal posters

Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) on Tuesday warned of legal action against those who indulge in unauthorized pasting of posters on metro rail structures. In a release, CMRL said unauthorised affixing of posters, bills and others on piers, barricades and other structures of metro railway project was illegal under Section 62 (2) of the Metro Railway Act 2002.

It further said such pasting or putting up of posters or advertisements on premises of metro railway and trains would be liable for imprisonment up to six months, or a fine of ₹1,000 or both. TNN
