

CMRL staff felicitated:

Staff members and senior officers who won various competitions organised by Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) as part of Vigilance Awareness Week celebrations were given prizes at an event here on Friday.

T V Somanathan, additional chief secretary, special initiatives department, gave away the prizes. In his address, Somanathan reiterated the importance of following procedures with integrity and transparency, while lauding CMRL's efficiency in handling its contracts with utmost transparency. He said making decisions related to contracts by following transparent procedures would help curb corruption. He said the aim of officials should be to provide best service to the public.
