

Book on mobile metro tickets

Chennai: The CMRL mobile application is all set to be updated in January. The new update will allow metro train commuters to book tickets via their smartphones besides providing them with provisions to check the balance of smartcards and recharge them online.

Commuters will now have to link their smart cards to the Near Field Communication Connectivity in their smartphones that will allow them to check the balance and to recharge their smart cards. —DC