

Metro trains at 4.30am on Sunday

Chennai: Metro trains will begin services at 4.30am on Sunday instead of the usual 6am so passengers attending the yoga event at A M Jain College in Meenam-bakkam can reach on time. This change in timing is applicable only on December 22. Usually, Metro trains on Sunday run between 8am and 10pm. The timing was revised to 6am to 11pm in November following requests from commuters.
