

Timings of Metro Rail services to be extended

CHENNAI: On account of festival days, Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) has decided to extend the operating time of the Metro trains from Friday. The services are in operation from 7 am to 9 pm now. "On account of festival days, Chennai Metro Rail services will be extended till 11 pm on Friday and Saturday," according to a CMRL statement. Also, the service would commence at 5.30 am (instead of 7 am) on October 27, it added. "Also, on account of continuous holidays in the ensuing week, Chennai Metro Rail services will be extended till 11 pm on October 29. Further, to facilitate the passengers returning from festival holidays, CMRL has decided to extend its Metro Rail services from 5.30 am instead of 7 am on November 2. The trains will run without peak hour service during the extended duration," the release said.
