

» Chennai Metro bags intl award for safety

CHENNAI: Chennai Metro Rail Ltd has won an international award for ensuring exemplary safety standards by the US-based World Safety Organisation (WSO). Only six companies from across the globe are selected every year for this award, said an official release by the CMRL adding that the award is in recognition of ensuring exemplary safety standards, effective maintenance of safety records, periodic conduct of safety and environment programs to the site engineers and staff on various aspects of safety measures to be followed for the protection of people, property, resources, environment and for showing distinctive concern for the well-being of its employees.