

Prompt action by metro staff saves life

Station controller J Rajesh and train operator P M Rajeev were felicitated after their prompt action helped save the life of a passenger who fainted in a metro train on Wednesday. Due to their well-coordinated operation the victim was rushed to hospital in minutes.