

Chennai Metro to operate trains on Sundays

CHENNAI: The Chennai Metro on Friday said that it would operate train services on Sunday and government holidays from 7 am to 9 pm with a frequency of 10 minutes. An official release issued by CMRL said that Metro resumed train services from June 21 with 50% capacity as per the government directive. "CMRL has decided to operate its Metro services from 7 am till 9 pm every 10 minutes from the coming Sunday and government public holidays," it said.