The selection committee inspected the MetroS replica model exhibited as the CMRL pavilion at the ongoing 47th Tamil Nadu Tourism Development Corporation at Island Grounds in Chennai.

The 47th TTDC Fair is currently taking place on Chennai's island grounds. Several departments and private vendors have set up stalls and pavilions at this fair to showcase their milestone achievements to the public.

Chennai Metro Rail Limited has also taken part in the ongoing 47th TTDC fair by erecting a sprawling MetroS model as a pavilion to demonstrate the various facilities and milestone achievements of CMRL. On behalf of the Tourism Department, gifts will be given to the best venues on the final day of the 47th TTDC Exhibition. The CMRL Pavilion was examined by the General Manager of TTDC and District Revenue Officer Bharthidevi, District Revenue Officer of the Arts and Culture Department Sivasundaravalli, and Joint Director of the Tourism Department Pushparaj.

The best pavilion set up on behalf of government departments and private organizations will receive one of the top three prizes. Aside from the arena, prizes will be awarded to the best arenas in terms of internal and external appearance. In addition, the coordinator of the best-performing pavilion will get an award.
