Chennai Metro Train services to be delayed by 10 minutes due to technical glitch

Chennai Metro Train services have been slightly delayed on both Green Line and Blue Line due to a technical glitch. Due to this, Metro Trains will run on both the routes with a short delay by 10 minutes during peak hours and non-peak hours.

The technical glitch occurred at around 4.30pm. CMRL has engaged the necessary technical teams to rectify the glitch on war footing basis.

Hence, all Metro passengers are requested plan their journeys accordingly. CMRL regrets the inconvenience caused and requests its passengers co-operate during this short delay.

Also, CMRL wishes to inform that once this technical glitch is rectified, the Metro train services will resume on both the routes as per scheduled timetable.
