Press Release

Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) would like to inform passengers that, the Tourist Cards (1-day & 30-day) will no longer be available starting from February 1, 2025.

While the Tourist Cards are being discontinued, CMRL remains committed to offering convenient travel options. Passengers can continue to enjoy hassle-free journeys through alternative ticketing options, including digital tickets, QR code-based tickets, single journey tokens, and the National Common Mobility Card, which is now also integrated with MTC buses for a seamless travel experience.

We sincerely appreciate the support and understanding of our passengers. CMRL is dedicated to improving the metro experience and meeting the evolving needs of both commuters and tourists in the future.
